Bart Jacobs

Bart Jacobs is a professor of computer security, privacy & identity at Radboud University Nijmegen, The Netherlands. His work covers both theoretical computer science and more practical, interdisciplinary work, esp. in computer security and privacy, intelligence, law and ethics. Jacobs is a member of the Academia Europaea and of the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences (KNAW), and a recipient of an ERC Advanced Grant. He also received the Stevin prize, which is the highest award in science in The Netherlands. He is an active participant in societal debates about security and privacy, in the media and in various advice roles e.g. for government and parliament. He is the initiator of the privacy-friendly identity wallet app Yivi and of the social platform PubHubs based on public values. Jacobs is co-founder of Nijmegen's interdisciplinary iHub on digitalisation and society.
